

L&K Consultancy

Clearly different approach to securing your next job

Front (from left): Sam Ayres, Claire Ashwell (sales director) and Louise Raza
Back: Shahid Raza and Shaun Brand

L&K Consultancy work for the areas largest employers, helping them recruit within all levels for both their office and industrial jobs. Working within temporary and permanent recruitment, you need look no further in your search for employment.

They know you have choices on how to find your next job, so they want to use this article to answer three frequently asked questions about L&K. We hope the answers will encourage you to contact them so they can start work TODAY to find you the perfect role.

What do L&K pay their temporary staff?

THE answer to that is simple – they pay great rates!

L&K's unique pay structure will guarantee you some of the highest rates in the local markets. Whether you are looking for temporary work within industrial or office based jobs, you won't be disappointed.

How do you find the jobs other agencies can't?

ONCE you register with L&K, you have the dedication of its entire team of consultants, calling clients on your behalf.

They don't wait for the jobs to come to them, they create them for you. But don't just take their word for it – more than 45 per cent of candidates have come to them through referrals of people just like you who they've helped with their search for employment.

Advertisement feature

A great indicator, they must be doing something right!

Why should I contact L&K?

WHY not? There's no charge to you as a candidate to use their services.

You'll have a whole office of highly skilled and experienced recruiters working on your behalf. AND on top of all that, you get to take advantage of their great candidate benefits such as their L&K Membership Card, which will provide you with discounts at a number of local retailers.

You really have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

Have we convinced you yet?

IF YOU need a little more persuasion, take a look at the jobs they've advertised.

These are just a selection, as they have far too many to advertise in one paper alone.

All that's left for you to do is to call them and put their reputation for being Clearly Different, to the test. They're waiting for your call.

Call L&K on 01279 406950.

